The International Meeting of Spanish Teaching Centers, ECELE, could not be held without the TURESPAÑA collaboration and its involvement in encouraging and promoting language tourism in Spain.

Since 2008, FEDELE has been collaborating with TURESPAÑA, a public body attached to the Ministry of Industry, Trade and Tourism through the Ministry of Tourism, responsible for the marketing of Spain as a travel destination in the world, in the promotion of language tourism in Spain, contributing to develop the promotion and dissemination of the teaching of Spanish as a foreign language, understanding this educational activity as a prominent tourist resource.

TURESPAÑA is the body responsible for convening Spanish teachers potentially interested in attending ECELE through its network of 33 Tourism Councils abroad, which represent a strategic asset of the Spanish tourism sector, due to its function as an interface with the sector, professional issuer, opinion prescribers and traveler at origin.

Among other collaborations include:

- Disseminate the existence in Spain of a wide and quality academic offer.
- Promote and disseminate the realization of training and updating programs for knowledge of teachers specialized in teaching Spanish as a foreign language.
- Promote the development of promotion activities and support the idiomatic tourism marketing.
- Improve and expand the attention to the specific needs and demands of the Spanish students as a foreign language in Spain.
